Detailed Itinerary

Tour Itinerary: Ladakh(3N)

Day 1: Lamayuru (3.450m) to Urshi (3.670m) via Prikiti la (3.720m)
You start from the village, pass the monastery and then cross the stream. Then you climb which leads you to your first pass which is Prinkti la (3.720m). You will now come across a climb. Go down and you will reach the village of Shilla. You will have to cross a bridge now and then take right and you will soon reach Wanla, a village. This place is very beautiful. You will have to walk for another three hours and you will reach Shills. Continue moving for another 2 hours along the Yapola river and you will reach another village known as Phanjila. Move up now from here now and you reach Urshi. Soon you will pass this village where you will be able to pitch your tents.

Day 2: Urshi (3.670m) to Tar (3.250m) via Tar la (4.850m)
The path that you have to cover is a bit difficult. It will take around 5 hours. Climbing down can also be difficult at times. Descent for 3 hours and then you reach Tar village.

Day 3: Tar (3.250m) to Mangyur (3.600m) via 2 passes (4.150m/ 4.140m)
From the village, you have to move up and you reach the pass Hibiti la (4.150m). From there you can see the beautiful views of the Indus valley and also beautiful peaks. The path is not easy and you reach the second pass which is Mangyu la (4.140m). Mangyur is a beautiful village u00a0and also has an interesting monastery. Also, a lot of good campsites are here near the stream which lies under the village.

Day 4: Mangyur (3.600m) to Alchi (3.150m)
Leave Man Gyu and you reach some of the beautiful shrines and prayer flags. You will also get to see beautiful mountains above the valley. Move for another 2 hours and you reach a village known as Gera and after that you will pass Lardo. That will happen three hours later. Now you reach Alchi. Here, you will get to see a monastery which is full of paintings. You can go back to Leh after 2.5 hours by jeep.u00a0
