Notes:

- The tour itinerary and inclusions are highly subjected to change based on weather conditions and less "daylight "hours. Your tour manager will go over the schedule and advise you of any alterations on a daily basis. We appreciate your flexibility and understanding that this is completely outside of our control.
- Travelers are requested to understand that they are traveling with a group of people from different regions, hence a cooperative travel would enable lifetime memories for every individual. It’s not expected that any traveler enter into unnecessary arguments.
- Passengers indulging in unwanted hindrance, in the smooth operation of the tour, or quarrelling with the manager or other passengers, or a behavior that is obscene, hateful or offensive on racial, ethnic, sexual or any other grounds, shall be asked to leave the tour on the spot, and shall not be given any refund for the same.
- If any traveler has to leave the tour mid-way, due to any reasons like death of relative, or illness or any other reasons, there shall be no refund for the remaining portion of the tour.
- Drinking is not allowed during the travel hours of the day. Smoking as per country regulations outside the vehicle.
- Most hostels have WiFi, but if you need more connectivity you can get a local SIM card at the airport.
- Its advisable to carry a Forex card while you travel overseas for ease.
- The weather in Iceland is actually milder on average than most people think, but can be extremely unpredictable, ranging from sunny to blizzard within minutes! Carry a warm sweater and a warm weatherproof jacket with hood. A good boot would be a great add on. Swimwear and fast-dry towels if you plan to make use of swimming pools, spas and natural hot springs.
- Although Icelandic food is quite popular, but as a first timer here, you still might like to pack in some packed foods and ready to eat cereals on this trip, since food here is pretty much costly. Same goes for tea bags and coffees and alcohol!
- In case of any dispute, the decision of tour manager shall be final.
- We would love to see you all as mutual Facebook friends by the time you guys end the tour! ;)
