Detailed Itinerary

 $Tour\ Itinerary:\ Tezpur(1N)-Dirang(1N)-Tawang(2N)-Bomdila(1N)-Nameri(1N)-Guwahati(1N)$

Day 1: Arrival at Guwahati, Transfers to Tezpur

Upon arrival at Guwahati Airport (arrive by 12pm), you shall be picked up in your exclusive vehicle and transferred to Tezpur. Enroute visit 'The Maha Mrityunjay Temple' in Puranigudan, Nagaon. This Temple is now renowned for the record of constructing the 126 feet tall Shiv Linga which is the largest Shiva Linga in the World.

Day 2: Tezpur - Dirang

After breakfast, proceed towards Dirang. Dirang is an unexplored gem, hidden away in the wilderness of Arunachal Pradesh, located at 5250ft above sea level, freezes you momentarily with its breathtaking awesomeness. This cosy little town of Arunachal Pradesh step right out of an imaginative, nature loving painter's canvas. Snow-capped peaks, roaring water bodies, heart-stopping chasms, expansive array of vegetation and a deep sense of freedom; you will be lost for words when you experience the beauty of this valley. It is 42 km away from Bomdila. Enroute, visit Bomdila Monastery. A replica of the Tsona Gontse Monastery at Tsona in southern Tibet, the Bomdila Monastery was set up by the twelfth reincarnate of the Tsona Gontse Rinpoche. The Gompa comprises a prayer hall, used by the Lamas and the Monks for peace prayers, a temple of the Buddha and residential quarters for the Monks. Besides the prayers and tantrayana practices, the young Monks are also taught about the monastic life and tradition and different subjects by the senior Lamas or the Monks of the Monastery. Based on the available time, you could explore Kalachakra Gompa and Dirang Dzong.

Day 3: Dirang - Sela Pass - Sela Lake - Jaswant Garh War Memorial - Tawang

After breakfast, proceed towards Tawang - The Land of Monpa Tribes & a major centre of the Mahayana Buddhists. On your way lies an astounding beauty, 'The Sela Pass'. Sela Pass is a lifeline for the people of Arunachal Pradesh, and the Sela Lake is as heavenly as it gets. The two combine to enchant one and all by their mystic beauty. One of the most stunning gifts of nature to the North-East, Sela Pass is the only way that connects Tawang District of the state (Arunachal Pradesh) to the rest of the country. Just 25km before you arrive at Tawang, visit Jaswant Garh War Memorial, set in scenic terrain just below the Sela Pass, commemorates the bravery of the martyred Indian Soldiers of the 1962 Indo- China War. This war memorial stands in memory of rifleman Jaswant Singh Rawat, Mahavir Chakra Awardee, who showed his valor by fighting and holding the invading Chinese back for 72hours all alone during the 1962 India-China War and remained at his post at an altitude of about 10,000ft before succumbing to an enemy bullet during that bloody winter war. The post that he held to repulse the Chinese troops has been renamed Jaswant Garh in recognition of his valor and sacrifice.

Day 4: Mesmerizing Beauty of Tawang

Tawang is surrounded by beautiful glacial lakes in and around the valley with crystal clear blue waters. Encircled by lofty and magnificent mountains, Tawang is a feast for the eyes. Today after breakfast, visit Panga Teng Tso Lake, Sungester Lake & Tawang Monastery.
