Detailed Itinerary

Tour Itinerary: Manas(2N)-Nameri National Park(2N)-Kaziranga(2N)-Guwahati(1N)

Day 1: Guwahati Airport / Rly station - Manas (150 kms / 5 hrs.)
On arrival at Guwahati Airport / Railway Station & transfer to Manas National Park a UNESCO World Heritage Site and a tiger reserve. The focus point of Manas National Park is the enchanting Manas River, named after the serpent goddess Manasa. It is the largest Himalayan tributary of the mighty Brahmaputra. It lies on the international border with Bhutan. The National Park was designated as a Tiger Reserve in 1973 which is famous for its majestic Tiger and Golden Leaf Monkey discovered only a few decades ago. It is a paradise for bird lovers, many birds which can be seen here are the Giant Hornbills, Pheasants, Jungle Fowl, Scarlet Minivet, Partridge, Florican and variety of water birds. Arrive & check-in to the hotel. Enjoy the vicinity around the resort with the amount of time. Overnight stay at Manas.

Day 2: Manas National Park
This morning we will start our day little early and will move to the Elephant boarding point for our first Jungle ride (subject to availability) to the Manas National Park on an Elephant back. The one hour Elephant safari will take us to the dense and narrow paths to increasing the chances of animal sighting. Later we will return to the hotel/resort for fresh-n-up and breakfast. After breakfast we will be ready for our half day Jeep Safari to the national park between Bansbari to Mathanguri Range. Return back to the hotel and rest of the day at leisure. In the later afternoon, proceed for a nature walk in and around the park. Overnight stay at hotel. Note: Jungle Safari in Manas National Park officially opens from 1st November but May & October (Partially Open), November to April (Best season), June to September (Closed).

Day 3: Manas - Nameri (343 kms / 7 hrs.)
After breakfast check out from the hotel and proceed for Nameri National Park. It is located on the banks of the river Jia Bhoralli on the northern side of the Brahmaputra on the foothills of the great Himalayas in the District of Sonitpur, it is another Tiger Reserve and also a bird loversu0092 paradise with more than 376 species of birds. On arrival check in to the hotel / resort. Evening free for leisure. Bonfire and traditional dances can be arranged on extra cost. Overnight stay at Nameri.

Day 4: Nameri National Park
After breakfast we will go on a fascinating river rafting on Jia Bhoralli River. For the same we will drive from the resort towards the river upstream, from where we will enjoy the downstream rafting on the inflatable raft. Here we will have a chance to see a lot of migratory waterfowl and if you are so lucky then one can even spot the Royal Bengal Tiger and the Elephant on the banks of the river from the boat. The stretch of rafting will takes around two hours. After the river rafting return to the camp/resort/hotel. Afternoon we will go on a nature trail along the reserve. Here we will be accompanied with the knowledgeable forest guides and armed forest guards. The forest treks are the best way to explore the Nameri National Park as it allows you to get very close to the wildlife life. Here once can spot the rare species of white-winged wood ducks and the great hornbill. Evening return to the camp/resort/hotel. Overnight stay at Nameri.
